	4	CLASSIFICATIO	ON_ST_TA	25X1
JNTR	XYS	viet Cone of Jermany		C1
IC_	Ste	ndal-Rorstel Airfield
1 1 11A7	 ΓΙΟΝ		PLACE OBTAINED
	CONT
	BTAINE		DATE PREPARED 13 Sentember 1950
	NCES_
			10. & TYPE)
		ENOLUSURES (W	RETURN TU GIA
			LIBRARY

			·
		antenna rod forward	mid-cockpit in line with trailing edges of wings, an of cockpit, a machine gun, about 50 cm long, protruding of cockpit; upper section of planes panted green, low	g
	2.	section light gray. planes took off at in eight minutes duratic second plane retractor According to a worker	* Flights were made between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. The intervals of five minutes, made local flights of seven on, then landed at the field individually. About every ded the landing gear while flying.	or y he
	2.	section light gray. planes took off at in eight minutes duratic second plane retracte According to a worker type described and for 150 recruits alleged	* Flights were made between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. The intervals of five minutes, made local flights of seven on, then landed at the field individually. About every ded the landing gear while flying.	or y he
	2.	section light gray. planes took off at in eight minutes duratic second plane retracte According to a worker type described and for 150 recruits alleged were allegedly made	* Flights were made between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. The intervals of five minutes, made local flights of sevention, then landed at the field individually. About every ded the landing gear while flying. For at the field the total occupation was 48 planes of the four single-engine biplanes. In late July 1950 about the arrived and were given flight training.  Flight	or y he s
1	3° -	section light gray. planes took off at in eight minutes duration second plane retracted According to a worker type described and for 150 recruits alleged, were allegedly made; No construction work The previous assumpts field. The report doment, formerly station	* Flights were made between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. The intervals of five minutes, made local flights of seven ion, then landed at the field individually. About every med the landing gear while flying. For at the field the total occupation was 48 planes of the four single-engine biplanes. In late July 1950 about a lay arrived and were given flight training.  Flight for several hours on all days when the weather was good was being done on the field or buildings.  aircraft are IL-10 ground attack planes. This confirmation that a ground attack regiment is stationed at the loes not indicate whether the air reconnaissance regiment in Koethen, is still in Stendal.	or y he s d.
I	3. *	section light gray. planes took off at in eight minutes duration second plane retracted According to a worker type described and for 150 recruits alleged, were allegedly made: "omment. The the previous assumpt field. The report doment, formerly static comment. The according to a worker "omment. The according to a w	* Flights were made between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. The intervals of five minutes, made local flights of seven ion, then landed at the field individually. About every sed the landing gear while flying. For at the field the total occupation was 48 planes of the four single-engine biplanes. In late July 1950 about a single-engine biplanes. In late July 1950 about a several hours on all days when the weather was good was being done on the field or buildings.  aircraft are IL-10 ground attack planes. This confirmation that a ground attack regiment is stationed at the loes not indicate whether the air reconnaissance regioned in Koethen, is still in Stendal. arrival of new personnel has not been observed by other	or y he s d.
1 1	3° -	section light gray. planes took off at in eight minutes duration second plane retracted According to a worker type described and for 150 recruits alleged, were allegedly made: "omment. The the previous assumpt field. The report doment, formerly static comment. The according to a worker "omment. The according to a w	* Flights were made between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. The intervals of five minutes, made local flights of seven ion, then landed at the field individually. About every med the landing gear while flying. For at the field the total occupation was 48 planes of the four single-engine biplanes. In late July 1950 about a lay arrived and were given flight training.  Flight for several hours on all days when the weather was good was being done on the field or buildings.  aircraft are IL-10 ground attack planes. This confirmation that a ground attack regiment is stationed at the loes not indicate whether the air reconnaissance regiment in Koethen, is still in Stendal.	or y he s d.
	3. *	section light gray. planes took off at in eight minutes duration second plane retracted According to a worker type described and for 150 recruits alleged, were allegedly made; We construction work The previous assumptifield. The report do ment, formerly static ment, formerly static comment. The assumption of the previous assumptifield. The report do ment, formerly static comment. The assumption of the previous assumptifield.	* Flights were made between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. The intervals of five minutes, made local flights of seven ion, then landed at the field individually. About ever ied the landing gear while flying. For at the field the total occupation was 48 planes of the field and were given flight training.  Flight for several hours on all days when the weather was good was being done on the field or buildings.  aircraft are II-10 ground attack planes. This confirm identificate whether the air recomnaissance regioned in Koethen, is still in Stendal. arrival of new personnel has not been observed by other struction work has not been observed by other from the from the form the first the first the first the first the form the first the fir	or y he s d.